Additional Information Regarding Your Account

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

We have some important information about person-to-person transfers of money you may make with your credit card through merchants and their payment applications. Due to card network rules, these merchants are required to process these transactions as money transfers instead of purchases by September 1, 2019. As a result, if you choose to use your credit card for one of these transactions it will be treated as a cash advance. Cash advances are subject to any cash advance fees and APRs and do not have a grace (interest-free) period.

To better understand how this will affect you, please refer to your Cardmember Agreement for details and specifics about cash advances.

If you have any questions, please call us at 888-530-3626 and a customer service representative will be happy to assist you. Thank you for your business!
